

Delphine Boatright

Published: Monday, December 29, 2008 11:25 AM EST

Delphine Boatright, age 86, of Alma died at her residence Friday December 12, 2008 after a short illness.

She was a native of Bacon County, daughter of the late Randall J. Jordan and Lottie Mae Haselden Jordan and was also preceded in death by her husband, Roe Boatright, a grandson, Kevin Dan Boatright, two brothers, Harold and Hugh Jordan and a sister, Madge Jordan Carter Lynch. Delphine was a member of Ten Mile Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Van Banner Boatright and wife Lawanda of Blackshear and Dan Mack Boatright and wife Linda of Alma, five grandchildren, Julie Diane Rewis of Waycross, Wendy Horton of Marietta, Waylon, April and Ashlyn Boatright all of Alma, also five great-grandchildren survive.

Funeral services were held Monday, December 15, 2008 at Ten Mile Baptist Church where Rev. Brian Gill and Rev. E. C. Crews officiated. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were, Waylon and Franklin Boatright, Marty Hilton, Daniel Alderman, Roger Turner and Bruce Carter. All others in attendance were considered as honorary pallbearers. Crosby Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.