

THE COMMERCIAL APPEAL

Olive Branch, MS –

LARRY SMITH, 68, retired owner of Mid-town Auto Repair, died Tuesday, August 11, 2009 at his home.

Mr. Smith was born November 4, 1940 in Amory, MS to the late Walter William and Mary Gwendolyn Smith and was a Baptist.

Visitation will be Sunday, August 16 from 1-2:30 p.m. at Twin Oaks Funeral Home in Southaven, MS with graveside services immediately following at 3 p.m. at Forest Hill Cemetery Midtown in Memphis, TN.

He is survived by three sons, Larry Gene Smith of Memphis, Gary Smith of Southaven, and David Smith of Memphis; one daughter, Neva Kay Smith of Memphis; three brothers, Fritz Smith of Rainbow City, AL, Tom Smith of Byhalia, MS, and Philip Smith of Bowling Green, KY; three sisters, Betty Sue McNeill of Akron, OH, Walta Mae Wallace of Amory, MS, and Maxine Hollis of Atlanta, GA; and four grandchildren, Dillon, Cassie, Alex, and Landon.

The family requests that any memorials be made to the National Foundation for Transplants, 5350 Poplar Avenue, Suite 430, Memphis, TN 38119 or www.transplants.org. Twin Oaks Funeral Home 662-349-9720

Published in The Commercial Appeal on August 16, 2009