

Lois Courson Bagley

Published: Tuesday, September 8, 2009 11:33 AM EDT

Lois Courson Bagley, age 89, of the Bickley Community died Friday afternoon at the Bacon County Hospital after an extended illness.

She was born in Coffee County but had lived all her life in the Bickley Community. She was daughter of the late Joseph Courson and Margie Bell Rowell Courson and was also preceded in death by her husband, J. D. Bagley, a son, Bobby Bagley, a daughter, Mildred Woods, three brothers, Marvin, Winford and Floy Courson and a sister, Lila McQuaig. Lois was a member of Victory Chapel Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Dennis Bagley and wife Seven of Warner Robins, two daughters, Marie Cole and husband Jerry of Warner Robins and Judy Taylor and husband Buddy of Alma, a brother, Warnie Courson of Waycross, a sister, Fannie Rowell of Nicholls, 15 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and eight great great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at Victory Chapel Baptist Church in Ware County with Rev. Larry Nickell, Rev. Robbie Yawn and Rev. Larry Cox officiating. Interment will follow in the Bagley Cemetery. The family will be receiving friends at Victory Chapel Baptist Church Sunday evening between 6-9 p.m. and are meeting at the residence on Will Lee Road.

Active pallbearers will be, Greg, Johnny and Chris Bagley, Michael Medders, Eric Hutto and Richard Morris. Members of Victory Chapel Baptist Church will be honorary pallbearers. Crosby Funeral Home is in charge of all the arrangements.