

Loualta Tillman Tomberlin

Loualta Tillman Tomberlin, 84, of Surrency, died Saturday, Oct. 18, 2008 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Savannah after an extended illness.

Mrs. Tomberlin was born on Aug. 28, 1924 in Appling County to the late Ruth and Herschel Tillman. She resided in Appling County all of her life. She was the founder of Surrency Day and very active in the upkeep of Bethel United Methodist Church Cemetery. Mrs. Tomberlin was a member of Surrency Methodist Church.

Mrs. Tomberlin is survived by her husband, J. C. Tomberlin; two daughters, Emily Williams and Marie Tomberlin; four sons and daughters-in-law, Jasper and Jane Tomberlin, Mark and Toni Tomberlin, Howard Tomberlin and Roy Mincey; two sisters, Nita Henderson and Hazel Thomann; three brothers, Lowell Tillman, Rooney Tillman and Stanford Tillman; 11 grandchildren, Shanna Williams, Felicia Smith, Jenny, Jill, Jessica, Blake, Weston, Kristin, Dallas and Cheyanne Tomberlin; and one great-grandchild, Hayden Tomberlin.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Oct. 21 at 3:00 p.m. at Bethel United Methodist Church with the Rev. Julian Tucker and the Rev. Jimmy Gilbert officiating. Interment followed in Bethel United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Blake Tomberlin, Weston Tomberlin, James Tomberlin, Don Tomberlin, Timmy McGowan and Marlow Waters. Honorary pallbearers were all in attendance.

Doyle and Annie Ruth Tillman rendered musical selections. Swain Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.