

The Alma Times

Billie D Medders

Mrs. Billie D. Medders, 96, of Alma, passed away Sunday (March 11, 2007) at her residence after an extended illness.

She was a native of Bacon County, daughter of the late John Franklin Drummond and Bertha Ann Edwards Drummond. She was preceded in death by her husband, Judson Y. Medders; a daughter, Carolyn J. Cowart; six brothers, Carl, Virgil, Grady, C.A., J.P. and W.L. Drummond. She was a retired schoolteacher after 34 years, a member of First Baptist Church, Friendship Sunday School Class, Historical Society, Retired Teachers Association, AARP and the Library Board.

Survivors include two daughters, Bobbie M. Altman, of Brunswick, and Alynda McLean (husband James), of Alma; two sisters, Lataine Thyng and Jeannine Lee (husband Cecil), all of Alma; 10 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren and 16 great-great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

A funeral was scheduled for this morning at 11 at First Baptist Church with the Rev. Richard Johnson and the Rev. Lance Wade officiating. Burial will follow in Unity Baptist Church Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Timothy and Todd Cowart, Jamie McLean, Danny and Kenneth Drummond and Bart Altman. Honorary pallbearers will be members of Friendship Sunday School Class, Health Department Home Care, Dr. Bagley and staff. Crosby Funeral Home (Alma) is in charge of arrangements.