

August 15, 2007

Charles Audie Williams

Charles Audie Williams, 53, of Stockbridge, died Thursday, August 2, 2007 in the Henry County Medical Center.

Williams was a native of Appling County, but had resided in Stockbridge for the past 20 years. He was born Oct. 1, 1953 to the late Mack Williams and Zette Mae Stone. Charles was a Lead Linesman for Georgia Power with 30 years of service.

Survivors include his wife, Emily Williams; two daughters, Shanna Williams and Felicia Williams, all of Stockbridge; five sisters, LaTrisha Yawn, Marie Crosby, Darlene Stiles, all of Baxley, Sara Jane Cooper and Maxine Kauger, both of Surrency; brother, Joey Stone of Baxley; three brothers-in-law, Jasper and Jane Tomberlin, Mark and Toni Tomberlin and Howard Tomberlin; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Loualta and J.C. Tomberlin, all of Surrency; and 17 nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral services were held Sunday, August 5 at 4:00 p.m. at Bethel United Methodist Church with the Rev. Creig Smith, the Rev. Jimmy Gilbert and the Rev. Julian Tucker officiating. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Michael Crosby, Jessie Murray, Jerry Murray, Jerome Murray, Stephen Kauger and Jason Kauger.

Mona Shumans and the congregation rendered musical selections. Swain Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.