

The Alma Times

Emory Marion Sellers

Emory Marion Sellers, age 83, of Brunswick, Georgia died Friday May 2nd, 2008 at Satilla Regional Medical Center after an extended illness.

He was a native Bacon County but had lived in Brunswick since 1948. He was son of the late Grady Bryson Sellers and Lucille Bullard Sellers and was also preceded in death by his wife Jean Hughes Sellers and was a veteran of WWII while serving in the U. S. Army.

Survivors include three sons, Ronald Emory Sellers and wife Linda of Colorado Springs, CO, Andrew Bryson Sellers and wife Debra of Duluth, Georgia and Michael Anthony Sellers and wife Laura of Lilburn, Georgia, as well as a sister, Gerene Altman of Alma and six grandchildren and three great-grand children.

Graveside services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. in Rose Hill Cemetery in Alma with Rev. Lowell Lee and Rev. David Miller officiating. The family will be receiving friends at Crosby Funeral Home in Alma Monday evening between the hours of 6 and 8 p.m. Crosby Funeral Home is in charge of all the arrangements.