

The Alma Times

Hinson Jordan

Hinson Jordan, age 74, of Alma, died suddenly early Friday, September 14, 2007 at The Florida Baptist Medical Center.

He was a native of Bacon County, son of the late Harvey Edward Jordan and Lillian Carter Jordan. Hinson was a farmer, retired state meat inspector, and member of Friendship United Methodist Church, past Worshipful Master of Bacon Masonic Lodge #56, member of Royal Arch Tri City Chapter #90 and had just recently received his 50 years of continuous service apron award for Bacon Lodge #56. Hinson was active in many church activities, bass singer for the Good News Quartet, and sang bass with the Twin Oaks Singers.

Survivors include his wife of 52 years, Mary Meeks Jordan of Alma, two sons, Bill Jordan and wife Sonja of Alma and Edward Jordan of Alma, two daughters, Karen Bennett of Alma and Melanie Music and husband Eddie of Alma, three grandchildren, Chris Music of Nicholls, Brock Bennett and Rachel Jordan both of Alma.

Funeral services were held September 17, 2007 at Ten Mile Baptist Church with the Reverend Bryan Gill and Reverend Joe Lee officiating. Interment followed in Friendship United Methodist Church Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family ask that donations be made to Friendship United Methodist Church or Ten Mile Baptist Church.

Active pallbearers were, T-Boy Carter, Sammy Boatright, Tim Carter, Glenn Lassiter, Kevin and Kereth Allen. All others in attendance were considered as honorary escort.

Crosby Funeral Home was in charge of all the arrangements.