

James Lamar Turner

Mr. James Lamar Turner, 71, passed away suddenly Monday afternoon, September 24, 2007, at his residence.

A native and life-long resident of Pierce County, he was the owner/operator of Turner Appliance, Inc. for over twenty years until his retirement. Prior to going into the appliance business he had worked for GMAC and Woolco. Mr. Turner attended Emmanuel Baptist Church and was a son of the late Roscoe & Blanche Strickland Turner. A son, Anthony Scott Turner, also preceded him in death. Mr. Turner loved his grandchildren and the outdoors. An avid fisherman and hunter, he also loved his house on the Satilla River.

Survivors are his wife of 46 years, Sylvia Smith Turner of Blackshear; a daughter, Alison Turner Long of Blackshear; a son and daughter-n-law, James Lamar "Jamie" Turner, Jr. and his wife, Linda, of Blackshear; three sisters and a brother-n-law, Patsy T. Sherrod of Waycross and Deloris & Runt Boatright and Pearl Bailey all of Blackshear; two brothers and a sister-n-law, Carlton "Toad" & Jackie Turner and Wayne Turner all of Blackshear; 5 grandchildren, Blair Turner, Payton Turner, Macie Britt, Allie Caroline Long and Anna Claire Long and several nieces, nephews & other relatives.

Funeral services for Mr. Turner will be held Thursday morning, September 27, 2007, at 11:00 o'clock from the Pearson-Treadwell Chapel. Interment will be in the Blackshear Cemetery. Visitation for Mr. Turner will be held Wednesday evening from 6 until 9 at the funeral home.
