

The Alma Times

August 2, 2007

Maudine Stewart McIntyre

Maudine Stewart McIntyre, age 75, of Alma died Thursday, July 26, 2007 at the Satilla Regional Medical Center after a short illness.

She was a native of Bacon County. Maudine was the daughter of the late Julian H. Stewart and Eula Butler Stewart and preceded in death by her husband, Roy McIntyre and brother, Harold Stewart.

Survivors include one son, Ralph David McIntyre of Elberton, Georgia, daughter, Charlene McLemore & husband Tony of Alma, brother, Johnny Stewart of Dixie Union, sister, Montine S. Taylor of Savannah. Also one special sister in law, Velma Stewart, four grandchildren and five great grandchildren survive.

Funeral services were held on July 30, 2007 at the Chapel of Crosby Funeral Home with Reverend Buddy Whately officiating. Interment followed in the Stewart Cemetery. The family received friends at the funeral home Sunday evening.

Active pallbearers were: Shawn Boatright, David Mann, Richard D. Taylor, John Stewart, Bob Hoyt, B. Randall Taylor, Joe Stewart, Chris Stewart, Jeffrey Stewart and Roy Daniel McLemore. Honorary pallbearers were, Class of 1948 and members of Bacon County Senior Citizens.

Crosby Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.