

The Alma Times

Minnie Olga Quinn Martin

Minnie Olga Quinn Martin, age 83, of Hazlehurst, died Thursday, July 3, 2008 in the Bacon County Hospital.

Mrs. Martin was born October 12, 1924 in Ware Co. to the late George Washington Ellis and the late Tottie Davene White Ellis. She resided in Rincon for a number of years and lived in Jeff Davis County for the past thirty years. She was a hairdresser and was later employed at Wal-Mart. She was a member of Satilla Freewill Baptist Church. Her daughter, Joan Simmons and husband, Melvin Laydell Quinn, preceded her in death.

Survivors include her husband, David Martin of Hazlehurst; son, John C. Quinn of Hazlehurst; sister and brother-in-law, Regina and E. D. Hall of Alma; grandchildren, Felicia Miller and Krystal Quinn both of Hazlehurst, Van Simmons of Alabama, and Natasha Casey of Mississippi; great-grandchildren, Trinity, Morgan, Malorie, Elizabeth, Van, Christopher, Mary, Abigail, Rachel and Joshua; special nieces, Judy Ganom, Glenda Ferris and Joy Burkes and special nephew, Jerry Music.

Funeral services were held Sunday, July 6 from the Chapel of Wainright-Parlor Funeral Home with Rev. Ernest McCarty, Rev. Daniel Eason and Elder Charles Henry officiating. Interment followed in the Satilla Freewill Baptist Church Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Ronnie Miller, Ronnie Solomon, Bobby Conrad, Paul Ganom, Jerry Floyd and Justin Tanner.

Jeffery Spell and Dot Barton rendered musical selections. Wainright-Parlor Funeral Home of Hazlehurst was in charge of the arrangements.