

SAVANNAH now THE SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS ELECTRONIC EDITION

TOP STORIES

obituaries

Myrtice F. Beasley

GRAY -- Myrtice Fulford Beasley, 81, died Jan. 30 1998 at the Bethany Home in Vidalia.

She was born in Montgomery County and lived most of her life in Gray, moving to Vidalia five years ago. She was a retired inspector with Dickie Clothing Co. of Macon and a homemaker. She was a member of the Northridge Baptist Church in Macon and the Eastern Star. She was the widow of C.A. Beasley.

SURVIVORS: a son, Willie F. Smith of Lake Sinclair; two daughters, Lillian Medders of Macon and Betty Daley of Orlando, Fla.; three brothers, Henry Fulford of Alton, Dewitt Fulford of Palatka, Fla., and Thurston Fulford of Lyons; a sister, Carolyn O'Neal of Lyons; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

VISITATION: after 11 a.m. today at Ronnie L. Stewart & Son Funeral Service in Vidalia.

FUNERAL: 3 p.m. Sunday at Ronnie L. Stewart & Son Funeral Service, burial in Pinecrest Cemetery