

Myrtle Wynn Mathis McClurg

Myrtle Wynn Mathis McClurg, 77, of Byron, died Thursday, Jan. 24, 2008.

Mrs. McClurg was born in Baxley and was the daughter of the late John R. and Ethel Miles Wynn. She had lived in middle Georgia for most of her life. Sears as well as Byron Elementary School employed her in the lunchroom. Myrtle was a former member of the 1st Church of the Nazarene in Fort Valley, a member of the First United Methodist Church and a charter member of the Ladies' Lions Club in Byron.

Her husbands, Nolan Mathis and Harry "Mac" McClurg, preceded her in death. Three brothers, Clarence, Johnny and Robert Wynn, preceded myrtle in death.

Her brother, Alvin Wynn of Fitzgerald, survives Mrs. McClurg; sisters, Myrtice Ursini of Denver, CO, Bonnie Watson of Mobile, AL and Melvie Jean Collins of Lawrence, KS; several nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church of Centerville. Burial followed in Andersonville National Cemetery. The Rev. Stephen B. Grantham officiated.