

Rea Harris

Mrs. Rea McConnell Harris, 99, of Carlton, died Sunday, June 20, 2004, at Brown Convalescent Center in Royston.

Born March 22, 1905, in Franklin County, Mrs. Harris was a daughter of the late John F. and Ophelia Stevenson McConnell. Mrs. Harris was a retired high school teacher, having taught in the Madison and Walton County School Systems, and was a member of Carlton Baptist Church.

Her husband, Guy Harris, and three brothers, Roger McConnell, Eugene McConnell and David Mack McConnell, preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 22, in B.D. Ginn Memorial Chapel of Ginn Funeral Home, Carnesville, with the Rev. Bill Stacey officiating. Burial was in Carlton Cemetery.

Survivors include a stepdaughter, Frances Kelly, Elberton; sisters, Mary M. Sewell, Carnesville, and Helen M. Smith, Jefferson; and several nieces and nephews.

Ginn Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. The Banks County News, June 23, 2004