

THE SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS ELECTRONIC EDITION

TOP STORIES

obituaries

August 30 2007

Reverend Roy Odis Hayes

Reverend Roy Odis Hayes - AIKEN, SC - Entered into rest Thursday, morning, August 30, 2007, at Trinity Hospital, Augusta, GA.

Rev. Roy Odis Hayes, 71, of Aiken, SC, beloved husband of forty-six years to Mrs. Sara Jo Allen Hayes and son of the late Clifford and Ada Taylor Hayes. Born in Jeff Davis County, GA, Rev. Hayes pastored churches in Alabama, South Carolina, and Georgia. He collected books, was a history buff, and enjoyed photography.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Jennifer Elizabeth Bayne, Aiken, SC; sister, Eudell Mosley, Jesup, GA; and grandchildren who he dearly loved and thought of him more as a father, Kathryn and Mykah Bayne; son, Michael Roy Hayes, also preceded him in death in 1993.

The family will receive friends Saturday, evening, September 1, 2007, from 7 until 9 o'clock at Hatcher Funeral Home & Cremation Service, Langley, SC. Funeral services will be held Sunday, afternoon, September 2nd, 2007, at 3 o'clock at Hatcher Funeral Home & Cremation Service, Langley, SC, with Pastor Richard Swift and Pastor Phillip Lee, officiating. Interment will follow in Pine Forest Baptist Church Cemetery, Langley, SC.

Pallbearers will be Russell Allen, Jimmy Allen, Larry Allen, Berrie Allen, David Beasley, and Allen Howayeck, Ronnie Allen and Ramon Allen.

The family has asked that memorials be made to Cedar Creek Church, c/o the building fund, 3001 Banks Mill Rd., Aiken, SC 20981. Hatcher Funeral Home & Cremation Service Langley, SC 803-593-8778 Savannah Morning News September 1, 2007 Please signs our Obituary Guest Book at www.savannahnow.com.