

Steven “Stevie” Deen

Steven “Stevie” Deen, 46, died Monday, Sept. 15, 2008 in Southeast Georgia Health System in Brunswick.

Stevie was a native of Appling County, he was born Jan. 22, 1962 to Shirley Lightsey Deen and the late Jerry Braswell Deen, Sr. He was a member of Baxley Church of God and was self employed as a carpenter.

He is survived by his daughter, Heather Marie Deen of Brunswick; mother, Shirley L. Deen of Baxley; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Nancy and Christopher Sellers of Hazlehurst and Deena and Mike Miles of Baxley; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Howard Gregory Jernigan and Ginger of Odum and Jerry Deen, Jr. and Denise of Baxley; one grandchild, three nieces and nephews, special friends, Frank and Vicky Parkerson, Henry and Donna Morris and Mike Berry.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Friday, Sept. 19 at Baxley Church of God with the Rev. Robbie Tomberlin, the Rev. Darrell Quinn and the Rev. Lamar Lee officiating. Ricky Newton gave eulogy. Burial followed in Piney Grove Free Will Baptist Church Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Terry Turner, Wayne Norris, Scotty Herrin, Kenny Herrin, Randy Herrin and Marty McIntyre. Honorary pallbearers were all friends in attendance.

Remembrances may be made to the Free Hart Center, c/o Wendell Hutcheson, 446 W. Plum St., Jesup, GA 31546.

The Tomberlin Family and David Williams rendered musical selections. Swain Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.