

Virginia M. Boatright

ALMA -- Virginia Medders Boatright, 64, died Jan. 27 2001 at Bacon County Hospital.

The Appling County native lived in Bacon County most of her life. She retired from Milliken Carpet Factory and was a member of New Lacy Church of God, where she taught Sunday school. She also was a member of Flat Landers Chapter of American Ex-POW/MIA Association.

SURVIVORS: her husband, Winford R. Boatright of Alma; two sons, Benny Boatright and Dennis Boatright, both of Alma; four daughters, Pam Patterson, Beth Taylor and Clara Towns, all of Alma, and Michelle Orvin of Statesboro; two brothers, F.M. Taylor of Thunderbolt and Vernon Medders of Jacksonville, Fla.; a sister, Louise Leith of Florence, Miss.; two daughters-in-law, four sons-in-law, 17 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

VISITATION: 6-9 p.m. today at Crosby-McLeighton Funeral Home.

GRAVESIDE SERVICE: 2 p.m. Tuesday in Pinelawn Memorial Gardens