Wilma Lee Thomson

Wilma Lee Thomson, 89, died Thursday, May 3, 2007, at her daughter's residence in Reidsville under the care of Pearls of Life Hospice.

The Screven County native had lived in Savannah most of her life, moving to Reidsville a year and a half ago. She graduated from Candler Nursing School in 1939 and was a registered nurse working most of her career at the Georgia Infirmity. She also worked private duty as well as for several doctors' offices and St. Joseph's Hospital in Savannah. She deeply loved her family, and was a member of Whitefield United Methodist Church in Savannah. Her parents, Dixie and Cassie Scott Lee; her husband, A. Lee Thomson; and a brother, William Henry Lee, preceded her in death.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Frances and Bobby Kennedy of Reidsville; two sons and daughters-in-law, Andy and Janet Thomson and Ric and Robin Thomson, all of Savannah; two brothers and three sisters-in-law: Clifford Elton and Scarlett Lee of Camilla, Charles David and Linda Lee of Sylvania, and Miriam Boykin Lee of Savannah; 11 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Graveside funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, May 7, at Hillcrest Abbey Cemetery on Wheaton Street in Savannah. Memorials may be made to Pearls of Life Hospice, 13 South Newton Street, Claxton, Georgia 30417. Bradley B. Anderson Funeral Home of Reidsville was in charge of the arrangements.
