

SAVANNAH now THE SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS ELECTRONIC EDITION

TOP STORIES

obituaries

Wilton Simmons

ALMA -- Wilton "Pete" Simmons, 64, died Oct. 8 2001 at Memorial Health University Medical Center in Savannah from injuries in a vehicle accident.

He was a painter and a member of New Hope Congregational Methodist Church.

SURVIVORS: his wife, Ann Mixon Simmons of Alma; a son, Randall Simmons of Mobile, Ala.; two daughters, Rhonda Simmons and Regina Medders, both of Alma; six sisters, Iris Hutto, Nonnie Hutto, Ida Pearl Andrews, Wilma Holman and Aleatha Crosby, all of Alma, and Mary R. Parrish of Callahan, Fla.; four grandchildren and other relatives.

VISITATION: 6-9 p.m. today at Crosby Funeral Home.

FUNERAL: 2 p.m. Thursday at New Hope Congregational Methodist Church, burial in the church cemetery.