

Woodrow Aycock

8/7/2004 (Publication Date)

WEBER CITY, Va. - Woodrow Aycock, 90, of Mountain Cove Road died Saturday, July 31, 2004, at the Brian Center for Health Care and Rehabilitation.

Born in Waycross, Ga., he had lived there since 2001. He was a resident of Anderson for more than 25 years. He was a retired baker and cook after several years of service. He was of the Baptist faith. He was the widower of Doris Coursey Aycock and was the son of the late Billy Aycock and Martha Carter Aycock. He was preceded in death by one daughter, Elizabeth Aycock; one sister; and one brother.

Surviving are daughters, Brenda Burdette of Starr, Mary Boggs of Pound, Va, and Linda Charping of Chicago; sons, Billy Aycock of Maryland, John Aycock of Chicago and Woodrow Aycock and Benjamin Aycock, both of Anderson; 10 grandchildren; and 22 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 6 p.m. Monday, Aug. 2, 2004, at Scott County Funeral Home chapel, Weber City by the Revs. Randall Stapleton and Mark Todd. The family received friends at the funeral home immediately after the services. Burial was private.

Condolences may be sent to the family via e-mail at cartertrentfh@earthlink.net. Carter-Trent/Scott County Funeral Home, Kingsport, Tenn., is in charge of arrangements.