

Sara Mae Williams

Sara Mae Williams, 58, of Palmetto, died Friday, Oct. 3, 2008 at her home in Palmetto.

Ms. Williams was born Nov. 20, 1949 in Alma to Louise Peacock Williams and the late James Madison Williams. Her brother, Wade Williams, also preceded her in death. Sara Mae was of the Church of God Faith.

She is survived by husband, J. M. Weaver; daughters and son-in-law, Kanita and Donald Duncan and Scarlett Doggett; son and daughter-in-law, Joseph and Vicki Beecher; mother, Louise Peacock Williams; sister, Gloria Diane Williams; brother, Ed Williams; and seven grandchildren, Gregory Gibby III, Joshua Ingram, Brittany Beecher, Kaitlon Ritch, Kailea Mae Ritch, Abby Beecher and Jaron Doggett.

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 7 at Swain Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Rick Brown officiating. Interment followed in Carter Chapel Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Donald Duncan, Greg Gibby, Josh Ingram, Edwin Williams, Danny Beecher and Kelly Williams. Honorary pallbearers were all in attendance.

Floyd Hunter and David Williams rendered musical selections. Swain Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.